

What to Know about the CSS Profile™

mefa®

CSS Profile is a registered trademark of the College Board, with which MEFA is not associated MEFA Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority and MEFA are registered service marks of the Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority. © 2022 MEFA. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

How to Participate

About MEFA

Not-for-profit state authority created in 1982 helping families plan, save, and pay for college

What is the CSS Profile?

- The College Board's online financial aid application
- Required by almost 200 colleges/universities & a handful of scholarship programs
  - Check each college/university's financial aid website
- All colleges also require the FAFSA®
- Used to award non-federal financial aid funds
- Opens October 1st each year
- Available for both domestic and international students

Why Do Institutions Use the Profile?

- Collects more detailed information than the FAFSA
- Allows schools to ask customized questions
- Permits you to provide special circumstances

Application Process

- Sign in
  - Use student's College Board account from SATs/AP tests
  - OR create a new student account using parent's information
  - A separate College Board account is needed for each student
- Left-hand sidebar will show different sections
- Sections are added when they become required
- Each section is checked and turns green when it's completed
- You are permitted to jump ahead to a different section
- Questions will be indicated if required
- You don't have to do the application all in one sitting
- When logging back in, you will be directed to the first incomplete section
- Answers are automatically saved as you go
- Application is mobile-friendly

Application General Tips

- Click Save and Continue to move to the next section
- To exit, click Save and Continue and then close the browser
- Use buttons in application, not web browser, to navigate
- Use hints and notes for question guidance
- Some questions will offer expandable hints you can click to read
- Answer all questions to which you have answers, such as the SSN
- Can leave an answer blank if it does not apply and is not required

Parent Information

- Report all parents and step-parents (up to 4) (include deceased)
- Legal guardians should be reported as parents (different from the FAFSA)
- Custodial parent, current spouse, and student provide info
  - Provide list of colleges
- Some schools require noncustodial parent to submit a Profile (check school's website)
- Student supplies email address of noncustodial parent
  - Either after school selection or in dashboard after submission
  - It is student responsibility to follow up with noncustodial parent

Divorced or Separated Families
Some colleges may require the CSS Profile from both biological parents.

If Noncustodial Parent Info Not Available

- If no noncustodial parent is listed, student will receive follow-up questions
  - Is noncustodial parent:
    - Deceased
    - Unknown
    - Incarcerated
    - Involved with legal order or documented abuse
  - Is student:
    - A child of a single adoptive parent
    - A child conceived by single parent at time of conception
    - Not in contact with noncustodial parent
- Based on the answers provided, noncustodial parent questions may be removed
- If noncustodial parent info required but not available, contact each financial aid office

Noncustodial Parent Instructions

- Noncustodial parent will receive an email request to submit the Profile
- Noncustodial parent completes a separate Profile
  - Use same website: cssprofile.org
  - Must create own College Board account
  - Will use student's CBFinAid ID (included in email)
  - Will create a student account with parent information
  - No student financial info provided, just student demographic info
  - Does not select colleges but sees them listed
  - Cannot submit application until at least one college is listed
  - Can use a fee payment code
  - If completing two CSS Profiles, will need to use two email addresses
- Custodial and noncustodial parents cannot see one another's application

  - Student is an orphan or ward of the court and under 24
  - Student received an SAT fee waiver (must use student's College Board account)
- Available to freshman/transfer/returning/independent undergraduate students
- Available to students whose parents live in U.S.
- Not available for international students
- Use for unlimited # of schools
- Noncustodial parents: fee waiver if meet same income guidelines above

Fee Payment Codes

- Purchased by colleges/universities/organizations for use by students
- Each code pays for one college submission
- No limit on use of fee payment codes

Submitting the Profile

- Will be given a chance to review the application
  - Prompts given to review inconsistencies or possible errors
  - Able to print answers if desired
- Will need to check box to certify that application is accurate
- Will be asked to pay – fee waivers show here

Dashboard

- Can access anytime
- Tab on top right of application
- Includes:
  - Application status
  - Each college's submission date, deadline, and additional documents required
  - Next steps required by each school
  - Payment receipt
  - Option to save or print application
  - Opportunity to add a college or program
  - Link to IDOC
  - Space to add noncustodial parent's email address (can be sent multiple times)
  - The student's CBFinAid ID

Corrections

- Students can submit corrections one time per application for certain situations:
  - Student completed the application as an independent but is actually a dependent
  - Student did not include business or farm information
  - Catch-all drop-down box
    - Options include “made a mistake” and “change in employment”
    - Student can provide a written explanation of the change
- Corrections are permitted only after original application has been delivered (~24 hours)
- Cannot complete a correction and add college request at the same time
- No charge to submit corrections

What is IDOC?

- College Board's Institutional Documentation Service
- Collects family documents (such as tax returns) on institution's behalf
- Not all CSS Profile schools use IDOC; check with each college
- IDOC student dashboard tells student of required documents
- Institution-specific forms are under the Get Forms link on the IDOC dashboard
- Documents must be in JPEG, TIFF, or PDF format
- Sign any documents on signature lines
- IDOC Customer Service: (866) 897-9881
