Assess Prospects for Admission

Develop a final list with colleges of each type:

- Probable: Chances for admission are strong (Make sure at least one is affordable)
- Target: Chances for admission are 50/50
- Reach: Chances for admission are less than 50%

Important: Make sure the student would be excited to attend every school on the list

Informal & Formal Campus Visits

Look beyond the brochures and websites

Informal visits

- Size
- Setting
- Culture

Formal visits

- Academics
- Activities
- Housing
- Q&A

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Essays

Your application essay says a lot about you

- Share something meaningful and personal
- Start writing early
- Try different topics and approaches
- Include life-shaping/challenging experiences
- Leave time for careful proof-reading

Letters of Recommendation

Adults who know you well can offer a helpful perspective on your abilities and strengths

- What are your school guidelines?
- Whom to ask?
- When to ask?
- How to ask?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Interviews

A face-to-face conversation lets colleges see the person behind the numbers

- Two types: 1. Informational and 2. Evaluative
- Be prepared to answer open-ended questions
- Know your reasons for applying to the college
- Ask thoughtful questions
- Cover the basics
- Relax and be yourself

A Word About the Waitlist

- Increasing popularity
- Some schools have a very long list
- Must submit enrollment deposit at an accepted school
  - This is usually non-refundable
- Accepted off the waitlist = minimal financial aid
- Steps to take when on the waitlist:
  - Write a short note to the admissions counselor
  - Update the school with recent grades and awards

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Understanding College Affordability

Research costs and financial aid now

- What is the Cost of Attendance and Net Price?
- What applications are required and when are they due?
- Need-based vs. Merit-based aid and different deadlines
- Start looking for private scholarships now

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Net Price Calculators

- Online tool found on each institution's website
- Asks questions about family finances & student academics
- Provides personal, estimated net college price
- Displays federal & institutional aid
- Merit-based aid may also be calculated
