Types and Sources of Financial Aid

What is Financial Aid?

- Financial aid is money to help students pay for college
- 3 main types:
 - Grants and scholarships (gift aid)
 - Federal work-study
 - Federal student loans

Federal Direct Student Loans

- Student is the sole borrower
- No credit check
- Subsidized and Unsubsidized
- 6.39% fixed interest rate for 2025-26
- Repayment:
 - No payments due while enrolled
 - Multiple options (many tied to income)
 - Total borrowed for 4 years: $27,000 max
 - Estimated payment: $300/month for 10 years
 - Estimated total debt: $32,000-$34,000
 - Deferment, forbearance, and forgiveness opportunities

Annual Loan Limits
Freshman Year	$5,500
Sophomore Year	$6,500
Junior Year	$7,500
Senior Year	$7,500

Merit-Based Aid

- Awarded in recognition of student achievements (academic, artistic, athletic, etc.)
- Might have renewable requirements or not be renewable
- Not offered at every college; check each college's website for details
- Separate application sometimes required (check deadlines!)
- Application deadline may be as early as November

Need-Based Aid

- Based on family's financial eligibility ("need")
- Eligibility determined by a standardized formula
- Includes grants, loans, and work-study
- Most financial aid is need-based
- Must be making satisfactory academic progress

The Application Process

Financial Aid Timeline

- Check deadlines and required applications on each college's website now
- You will likely apply for financial aid before you receive the admissions decision
- Early Action/Decision deadlines are often in October or November
- Standard deadlines are typically in February or March
- MEET APPLICATION DEADLINES!
- Use MEFA's College Application Manager to stay organized

FAFSA®

- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Required by all colleges
- Must complete every year
- Available on Oct 1st
- Steps to complete:
 1. Go to fafsa.gov and select the 2026-27 FAFSA
 2. Have student start the FAFSA (highly recommended) and then invite all other contributors (parents)
 3. Each contributor will complete their own separate section
 4. Last contributor to complete can submit the FAFSA
 5. Incomplete FAFSAs are deleted after 45 days of no activity

Watch MEFA's Understanding the FAFSA webinar at mefa.org/webinars for step-by-step guidance

FSA ID

- FSA ID = username and password for the FAFSA
- Must have an FSA ID to log in
- Can set up your FSA ID now at studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account
- Must have an email address
- Who needs an FSA ID?
 - Student
 - Every parent listed on the FAFSA
 - If parents filed taxes jointly, only one parent needs one
 - Student's spouse (if applicable) if filed taxes separately or didn't file
- Those without an SSN will answer knowledge-based questions pulled from credit history

Create an Account

Whether you're a student, parent, or borrower, you'll need to create your own account to manage the student loan journey.

What's Reported on the FAFSA?

- General Information
- Student citizenship status
 - All U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens can receive federal financial aid
 - Undocumented students may be eligible for MA in-state tuition and state aid
- Colleges where student is applying (each one will receive your FAFSA)
- Parents
 - Married, including same-sex parents, include both
 - All parents who live together, married or not
 - Divorced/Separated: parent who provided more financial support in last 12 months & current spouse
 - If parents provided equal support, use the parent with greater income and assets
 - Legal guardians are NOT a parent
- # in household: will pull from IRS but family can update
- # of children in college: will not be used in calculation

What's Reported on the FAFSA?

- Financial Information
- Parent and student income (2024 income for the 2026-27 FAFSA)
 - Will pull in federal tax data from the IRS (must give consent)
 - Both taxed and untaxed income that appears on the tax return
- Parent and student assets
 - Include value of savings, checking, investments, larger businesses except commercial fishing businesses, other property
 - Include education savings accounts as a parent asset and don't report the ones for other children
 - Do not include primary home, value of retirement, life insurance, family farms, small businesses, or commercial fishing businesses
 - Child support received is considered an asset
- Debt is not reported except debt on reported assets

Student Aid Index (SAI)

- Number that represents a family's financial strength
- Same federal formula used for every family
- Income weighs much more heavily than assets
- Some colleges also use an institutional formula
- Family has the primary responsibility for paying
- Not necessarily what the family will pay

Family Conversations on Affordability

- What is each school's net price?
- Who will pay for college costs?
- Consider community college first (free tuition and fees in MA)
- Consider the number of children in the family going to college
- Make a 4-year financing plan
- Federal PLUS Loan caps as of 7/1/26: $20k/year, $65k in total
- Think in terms of family total debt (4+ years of school) and student's potential starting salary

Paying for College in MA

Free and Affordable College
