

A Deep Dive into the CSS Profile

How to Participate

About MEFA

State authority created by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 1982, helping families
plan, save, and pay for college

What is the CSS Profile®?

- College Board's online financial aid application
- Required by roughly 200 colleges/universities & (a few) scholarship programs
 - Check each college/university's financial aid website
- All colleges also require the FAFSA®
- Used to award non-federal financial aid funds
- Opens October 1st each year
- Available for both domestic and international students

Why Do Institutions Use the Profile?

- Collects more detailed information than the FAFSA
- Allows schools to ask customized questions
- Permits families to provide special circumstances

Application Process

Sign in

- Use student's College Board account from SATs/AP tests
- OR create a new student account using parent's information
- A separate College Board account is needed for each student

Customized application

- Based on each student and colleges where student is applying
- Sections are added when they become required

Modern features

- Complete sections in any order
- Can complete in multiple sittings
- Mobile-friendly

Application General Tips

- Click Save and Continue to move to the next section
- To exit, click Save and Continue and then close the browser
- Use buttons in application, not web browser, to navigate
- Use hints and notes for question guidance
- Some questions will offer expandable hints you can click to read
- Answer all questions to which you have answers, such as the SSN
- Can leave an answer blank if it does not apply and is not required

Parent Information

- Report all parents and step-parents (up to 4) (include deceased)
- Must report date of birth and email address for parent(s)
- Legal guardians should be reported as parents (different from the FAFSA)
- Custodial parent, current spouse, and student provide financial/household info & list of colleges
 - Custodial parent = same as FAFSA = whoever provided more financial support in the previous 12 months
- Some schools require noncustodial parent to submit a Profile (check school's website)
- Student supplies email address of noncustodial parent
 - Either after school selection or in dashboard after submission
 - It is student responsibility to follow up with noncustodial parent

Application Determination

Which parents' information will be provided on this application?

Select all that apply.

Note: If your selected parent is married or living with a partner, select their spouse/partner as well.

☐ Stella Acorn

☐ Stuart Acorn

☐ Stephanie Acorn

What is their marital status? (required)

☐ Married or in domestic partnership

☐ Divorced or no longer in a domestic partnership

☐ Never married

☐ Separated

☐ Widowed

If Noncustodial Parent Info Not Available

- If no noncustodial parent is listed, student will receive follow-up questions
 - Is noncustodial parent:
 - Deceased
 - Unknown
 - Incarcerated
 - Involved with legal order or documented abuse
 - Is student:
 - A child of a single adoptive parent
 - A child conceived by single parent at time of conception
 - Not in contact with noncustodial parent
- Based on the answers provided, noncustodial parent questions may be removed
- If noncustodial parent info required but not available, send waiver request to colleges
 - Check each college's financial aid page for waiver request form and/or instructions

Noncustodial Parent Instructions

- Noncustodial parent will receive an email request to submit the Profile
- Noncustodial parent completes a separate and secure Profile
 - Use same website: cssprofile.org
 - Must create own College Board student account with parent information
 - Will use student's CBFinAid ID (included in email)
 - No student financial info provided, just student demographic info
 - Does not select colleges but sees them listed
 - Cannot submit application until at least one college is listed
 - Can use a fee payment code
 - If completing two CSS Profiles, will need to use two accounts under two different email addresses
- Custodial and noncustodial parents cannot see one another's application

General Information Requested on Profile

- Colleges where student is applying
- Parent & student 2024 income
- Parent & student projected 2025 income

CSS Profile Lite Experience

- College Board offers a “lighter” application (less questions) that colleges can select to use
- Colleges are encouraged to use it for their low-income applicants but can choose to use it for anyone
- Students who qualify (based on each college’s preference) will automatically be guided through the lighter application
- Colleges can also choose to use this lighter application for low-income non-custodial parents

Dashboard

- Can access anytime
- Tab on top right of application
- Includes:
 - Application status
 - Each college's submission date, deadline, and additional documents required
 - Next steps required by each school
 - Payment receipt
 - Option to save or print application
 - Opportunity to add a college or program
 - Link to IDOC
 - Space to add noncustodial parent's email address (can be sent multiple times)
 - The student's CBFinAid ID

Corrections

- Students can submit corrections one time per application for certain situations:
 - Student completed the application as an independent but is actually a dependent
 - Student did not include business or farm information
 - Catch-all drop-down box
 - Options include “made a mistake” and “change in employment”
 - Student can provide a written explanation of the change
- Corrections are permitted only after original application has been delivered (~24 hours)
- Cannot complete a correction and add college request at the same time
- No charge to submit corrections

What is IDOC?

- College Board's Institutional Documentation Service
- Collects family documents (such as tax returns) on institution's behalf
- Not all CSS Profile schools use IDOC; check with each college
- IDOC student dashboard tells student of required documents
- Institution-specific forms are under the Get Forms link on the IDOC dashboard
- Documents must be in JPEG, TIFF, or PDF format
- Send ALL tax return pages and schedules to prevent delay
- Sign any documents on signature lines
- IDOC Customer Service: (866) 897-9881
